

Aspergers man makes film about condition

FILMING: DT Wilson speaks to shoppers

A GLENROTHES man with Aspergers has been going around Glenrothes making a film about his condition and his love of horror films.

DT Wilson has been learning at Diversity's film school and was chosen by them to make a short film. He explained more about his piece: "My film is called 'for the love of Lugosi'. Lugosi was a famous horror actor, he was the original Dracula.

"We did the first shooting for the film at the Rothes Halls recently.

"I was very nervous as it was my first time doing this. We spoke to people, asking if they were in to horror films.

"We are to film in Macedonia and then at the Necropolis cemetery in Glasgow.

"I'm excited but exasperated.

"I haven't had this kind of opportunity before so it's great. I want to do more."
